On Wednesday, May 16, the RMGC rolled out its acclaimed welcoming mat to Blackhawk and Claremont Country Clubs. Twenty Three players from each of the two visiting clubs teamed up with RMGC players for an exciting friendly competition on the Dollar Ranch course. The first part of the event commenced at 7:30AM with a buffet breakfast at the Creekside Grill featuring a delicious salmon quiche – yes, real men do eat quiche. Following the breakfast the players warmed up on the driving range with balls provided courtesy of Keller Williams representative Mary Jane Kiefer. The total of Eighty Four players then loaded up in their golf carts and departed for their respective tees and the shotgun start commenced. When the round was concluded everyone gathered at the Event center for a great lunch provided by Stan Gideon and his staff and to hear the results.

Mark Heptig, as always provided his excellent professional services to do the scoring and announcing the winners. First Place: Jack Phillips, Jerry Becker, Bruce McDougall and Dave Peterson. This was the second first place finish in a row for RMGC members Phillips and McDougall.

From the left: Jerry Becker (Claremont CC), Jack Phillips (RMGC), Bruce McDougall (RMGC) and Dave Peterson (Blackhawk CC)

Second Place: Pat Kelly, Edwin Wood, Kerry Smith and Jim Hebert. Third Place was a three way tie between: Team 1A: Mike Kiefer, Paul O'Reilly, Burke Ferrari and Wayne Harbert. Team 4A: Bart Moore, William Banker, Don Loustalet, and Bill Pulliam and Team 11A: Rich Wheeler, Bruce O'Neil, Kevin McCullough and Ted Maag. There was a tie for Sixth Place between Team 8A: Bryan Burnett, Donald Jones, Pat Iacullo and James Gill – Team 10A: Jack Meng, Jeff Back and Joe Addiego playing with a blind draw for their fourth man.

Wendy Ferrari of Pacific Union International again provided some great bottles of wine for the closest to the pin contests on the par 3 holes 2 and 16. Rossmoor winners were Brent Atkins on hole 2 and Bob Smith on hole 16.

Linda Stephens representing Interno Realty along with two of her colleagues hosted what has become the talked about hit of the senior golfing events around the bay area – the RMGC raffle. Numerous prizes both cash and other items were won by participating individuals – a great way to enhance an already great event.

The Dollar Ranch course is in great shape and the greens continue to recover well from their April aeration. Everyone had a great time, a fun golf experience and great camaraderie. However, the highlight – which has become the most anticipated part of the events is the ice cream sundaes.

Brent Atkins epitomizes the age old slogan – “You scream – I scream we all scream for Ice Cream!!”
