Refunds of tournament fees to the participant will be made if they are unable to participate in the rescheduled tournament.

The chairmen are to suggest the policies to be implemented and the Board of Directors is to approve. The following tournament formats are applicable:

The Tournament Director will prepare the prize distribution with approval of the Tournament Chairman.

a. Should one person drop out of the foursome, the remaining three players will continue as follows: One player on each hole will hit two balls from the tee and through the green while the other two players hit only one ball. Players alternate on each hole so that each player will hit two balls from the tee through the green on every third hole.

b. Should two persons drop out of the foursome; the remaining two players will have their money refunded. If they stay for dinner, they must pay for it; otherwise, their dinner money will be refunded. (See cancellations rule below.)

The tournament format is 2 best balls of the foursome at full handicap. Insofar as possible, each foursome will include players from each club participating. Generally pairings are made to include a low handicap player in each foursome. A shotgun start is employed beginning at 8:30 a.m. Rossmoor players will be required to provide a golf cart for home events.
2. Fees: Entry fees are established by the Board of Directors based on recommendations from the Home and Home Chairman. Guest player green fees are charged at the Rossmoor member rate. 4. Score Cards: Names and GHIN numbers of both the Rossmoor and guest players are necessary to create the computer-generated scorecards.

This process will be repeated for subsequent Rossmoor based Home and Home events.

F. BEVERAGE OPERATIONS:

1. Purpose: The RMGC provides beverage service for many of its membership events. This includes bar service for club sponsored luncheons and dinners associated with tournament activities and membership social events. The service includes the purchase, storage and dispensing of both alcohol and non-alcoholic beverages.
2. Organization: The Food and Beverage Director will be responsible for the buying and stocking of the beverage cabinets for all functions requiring a bar. He must be in close contact with Tournament Directors in order to anticipate the number of people to be served. He must also take an inventory and record the usage for reporting to the Treasurer. (It is recommended that there be no use of non-Rossmoor bartenders.)

The Board of Directors is responsible for setting policy, supervision and operation of this beverage service. The cost of the beverages is included in the entry fee for RMGC events by a method established by the Board of Directors.

3. Scope: A beverage service may be provided to the other Rossmoor golf clubs (Women's 18-hole, Women's 9-hole and the Happy Hackers), upon request and at a per person cost established by the Board. The RMGC maintains a specific inventory of beverages (wine, beer, distilled spirits, soft drinks, bottled water and drink mixes) that are typical for all events and will not purchase other product brands or types for other clubs. However the RMGC will try to ensure a variety of brands and types of beer and soft drinks are made available that are suited to the occasion or crowd. The RMGC will not provide fresh drink mixes such as orange juice, Bloody-Mary mix or fresh fruits such as lemons and limes at an extra cost per person.

persons attending the event and the name of the person(s) that will be responsible for transporting the beverages from and back to the storage area.

5. Operation: A member of the RMGC will be assigned to coordinate with the requesting club as to delivery and set up of the service. This person will be provided a key to the beverage locker and instructed as to the estimated amount and type of product needed for the specific event. He may also arrange with the appropriate golf course staff to check out a vehicle to transport the product to the site. The requesting club must provide an adequate number of people to transport the beverages from the RMGC storage area, assist in beverage set-up, serve as bartenders, take down the beverage set-up and transport unused beverages back to the Men's Club storage after the event.

G. HOLE-IN-ONE INSURANCE:

1. All members of the RMGC are eligible to subscribe to yearly Hole-in-One insurance. The annual fee is determined by the Board of Directors annually and the prize is $100 by check payable to the member or credit in the Pro-Shop as elected by the member. These solicitations and their results will be reported regularly to the Board. The Treasurer will deposit monies received as a result of these solicitations to the RMGC account. The Board shall allocate the contributed funds to specific events.
2. The RMGC may list and display the names of those sponsors in event publicity, at the sponsored event and at meetings of the Club.
3. At a sponsored event a sponsoring business may display its products and/or information about its products, but may not engage in any active selling of those products within Rossmoor.
