Burke Ferrari reported that 94 out of 95 golfers paid their entry fee for the Scramble via credit card ($1887). Ferrari noted that John McDonnell was helpful in the process. He noted that the club cleared $434 in profit after paying out winnings.

A discussion ensued about the use of software (Golf Genius) and credit cards for events. It was noted that none of the other groups (18ers, 9ers, Hackers) were using software or credit cards although some might be experimenting.

Ed O'Dea asked if the new system could be used in the Home and Away program. Mr. Ferrari

HOME AND AWAY O'DEA/DORT

Ed O'Dea reported that Away events were scheduled at Sequoia and Oakhurst (20 member max) and other events may be scheduled at Discovery Bay and Orinda.

COMMUNICATIONS WEISS

Mark Weiss suggested the possibility of creating a scholarship fund for children of the greenskeepers. The greenskeepers travel a long way to get to work and do an admirable job in maintaining the golf courses, especially in these difficult climatic times. He suggested a $500.00 scholarship amount. Bill Keeley noted that $500.00 does not go far. Pat Iacullo indicated he would bring the matter up for discussion at the GAC meeting.

Dr. Weiss reminded members to submit articles and pictures for publication.
